Sunday Humor

The immigrant was perplexed when he stood up in church and an irate usher quickly pushed him back down into his seat. After the service, the usher apologized to the immigrant for being rough with him, and explained that it was a baptismal service and the pastor had asked: "Will the father of the baby please stand up."

Intention / Attention Courtesy of Minute Meditations/Franciscan Media

God looks at us the way a good dad looks at his son or daughter. When it comes to prayer, our heavenly Father sees our hearts, our sincere desires to pray well, not just our final products in prayer. So even if our praying of the rosary ends up being just a bunch of scribbles, we should remember that God can write straight with our crooked lines.

He can delight in our good intentions, our sincere desires to please him in prayer, even if we lose fervor or our minds go someplace else. Having a good intention is more important than maintaining perfect attention throughout the prayer.

— from the book Praying the Rosary Like Never Before: Encounter the Wonder of Heaven and Earth
by Edward Sri
